

Kittery's Road to Zero Waste Initiative

Updated Jan. 25, 2013

Partnerships

Kittery's Road to Zero Waste Initiative calls for both public and private partnerships in order to leverage resources and services and reduce costs.

PUBLIC PARTNERSHIPS

Town of Kittery, Department of Public Works: Highway/Parks/Solid Waste, All Facilities (www.kitteryme.gov)

Town of Kittery, School Department: Traip/Shapleigh/Mitchell, All Facilities (www.kitteryschools.com)

Town of Kittery, Recreation Department: (www.kitteryme.org)

Town of Kittery, Rice Library: All Facilities (www.rice.lib.me.us)

Town of Elliot: Share Equipment, Hauling, Bailing of Recyclables (www.eliotmaine.org)

Town of South Berwick: Bailing of Recyclables (www.southberwickmaine.org)

Town of York: Bailing of Recyclables (www.yorkmaine.org)

PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS

Aggregate Recycling Corporation is located in the town of Eliot, Maine and receives our landfill, recovered wood, and asphalt shingles for further processing. (www.aggregaterecycling.com)

Casella Resource Solutions is a recycling broker that is an innovator in zero-sort recycling, collection and compost resource recovery. (www.casella.com)

CLYNK is a Maine recycling company with a unique and innovative bottle redemption system offered exclusively in Hannaford supermarkets in Maine. (www.clynk.com)

ecomaine is a non-profit waste management organization owned and operated by 21 municipalities in Southern Maine. (www.ecomaine.org)

EcoMovement is an independently owned business that hauls recycling, compost and trash. (www.zerowaste.com)

Green Earth Baby Works is an independently owned business that provides, launders and picks up cloth diapers. (greeneearthbabyworks.com)

Got Books is a company that recycles and reuses books from the Town of Kittery Resource Recovery Facility and the Rice Public Library (www.gotbooks.com)

Habitat for Humanity is a nonprofit that reuses construction materials that they collect from the Town of Kittery Resource Recovery Facility. (www.habitatyorkcounty.org)

Maine Standard Biofuels is an independently owned business that collects waste grease and processes it into quality biodiesel and industrial strength soaps.(www.mainestandardbiofuels.com)

Planet Aid is a nonprofit that collects and recycles used clothes and shoes via collection boxes at The Town of Kittery Transfer station and at locations throughout Kittery. (www.planetaid.org)

Tanger Outlets donates cardboard to the Town of Kittery, which saves them money on having to ship them to a facility. Kittery benefits from the revenue generated by selling the boxes to recyclers. (www.tangeroutlet.com/kittery)

Troiano Waste is an independent waste hauling service in which demolition debris is sorted and processed to remove recyclable materials. (www.troianowaste.com)